Index

Adhesiveness, 24–25	Building Better Relationships (BBR), 50
Adjuncts of disciplinary power, 123 Adjuncts of penal power. See also	Building Skills for Recovery (BSR), 50
Subalterns of penal power,	Bullying, 150–154
1, 123	Burdens, 167–171
coerced involvement and ethical	Bureaucracy, 5, 33, 106, 133–134,
blindness, 134–135	143–144, 184
medicalisation and psychology,	Bureaucratic forms of power, 130–134
124–126	Bureaucratic legitimacy, 133–134 psychologist as 'expert', 126-130
psychology, power and	Care, 3, 40, 184
neutralisation, 135-141	Categorical Imperative, 62
psychology and bureaucratic forms	Chartership
of power, 130–134	assessment, 114
Advisory Council on Penal System,	process, 111–116
31–32	Choices, Actions, Relationships,
Alcohol Related Violence (ARV), 50	Emotions (CARE), 50
All-encompassing, 24–25	Coerced involvement, 134–135
American Psychological Association,	Coercive entities, 92
41	Coercive power, 17–18
Armouring, 180–181	Cognition deficiency, 47–48
Austerity, 5, 18–19, 107–108	Cognitive behaviour therapy (CBT), 33
Authoritative structures, 23	Cognitive impairment, 64
Avoidance, 181–182	Cognitive malignancies, 72
	Coherence, 133
Bad press, 5	Communicative element, 11
Bad Psychology: How Forensic	Conceptual categorisation, 56
Psychology Left Science	Conceptual variables, 56
Behind (Forde), 6–7	Confirmation bias, 23–24
Banter, 154–157, 174–175	Contemporary forensic practitioner
Becoming New Me 1 (BNM1), 50	role, 45–46
Behavioural malignancies, 72	Control
Belief-based, motivators, 57	engendering, 15–16
Blindness	of individuals, 1
ethical, 134–135	social, 12
moral, 40–41	ConVerse (newspaper), 5
British Psychological Society (BPS),	Coping strategies, 179–180
34–35, 145	'Correctional' psychologist, 45

Criminal Justice Act (2010), 35–36	Dyadic, 17
Criminal Justice Acts, 36	motivations, 57
Criminality, 13–14	relationship, 19
Criminologically/psychologically
positivistic 'treatment	Egocentric motivators, 57
industry', 34	Emotion work, 7-8, 190
Culture, 38–39	Emotional
hyper-masculine staff, 167	emotional labour, 60, 68, 75, 80,
staff, 38–45, 162	83–88, 118–122, 156
Cynic, 85–89	emotive labour, 60, 63-64, 68,
Cynical Retributive, 132–133	74–75, 79–80, 88, 121–122,
Cynical Retributivism, 81	188–189
Cynical Retributivist, 59, 129–130	malignancies, 72
Cynicism, 151–152	management, 40
	work environments, 39-40
Defeminised professional façade,	Emotions, 39-40, 43-44
168	England
Democratic Therapeutic Community	forensic psychology in prison, 30–31
Model (DTC), 50	prison in, 1
Democratic Therapeutic Community	prison system of, 21–22
Model Plus (TC+), 50	psychological services within
Denial of responsibility, 138–139	prisons, 2, 8
Deviance, 12–15	Enhanced Interrogation Techniques, 41
Disciplinary capital, 20–21, 24	Enhanced Thinking Skills programme
deviance, 12–15	(ETS programme), 50–51
expertise, 15–21	Entanglement, 29
keepers of gate, 25–28	Epistemological themes, 13–14
knowledge, 15–21	Ethical blindness, 134–135
medicalisation of society, 12-15	Ethics, 27–28, 145
power, 15–25	Eugenics, 11–12
prison, 15–25	Experience of prison, 38–45
psychology, 21–25	Expert, 123–124
Disciplinary change, 191	psychologist as, 126-130
Disciplinary discourses, 21	Expertise, 11, 15–21, 130, 140–141, 184
Disciplinary interests, 191
Disciplinary power, 16–17	Femininities, 166–167, 169
Discourse, 14	Force, 17–18
Dismissive behaviour, 110	Forensic psychological service
Domestic Violence Inventory, 48	development, 30-36
Dominance	Forensic psychologists. See also
Impositional Dominance	Occupational experiences
Isolational Dominance	of forensic psychologists,
Dramaturgical conflation, 43–44	1–5, 47, 55, 124, 183
'Dual-relationship' problem, 40-41	Cynic, 85–89

Functionalists, 69-76	HMP Grendon, 51–52
Humanists, 60–69	HMPS, 38, 50–51
Idealist, 81–85	Horizon, 50, 51
in prison, 123	Human Resource literature, 57
Retributivists, 81	Humanists, 8-9, 59-69, 78, 93, 124,
Utilitarians, 77–81	127–128
Forensic psychology, 6–7, 83–84	Hyper-masculine staff culture, 167
in British penal context, 12	Hypothesised outcomes, 56 discipline of, 106–107
historical structure, 37–38	Idealist, 81–85, 121–122, 126
role in prisons in England and	Identity Matters (IM), 50
Wales, 30–31	Impositional dominance by uniformed
Free sorting, 56	staff, 157–159
Frustration, 117	Imprisonment, 67, 77, 88–89
Functionalism, 69	In-office meditation, 159
Functionalists, 8–9, 59, 69–76, 78, 82,	Incentives and Earned Privileges
93, 131–132, 184–185,	scheme, 20–21
187–188	Indeterminate Sentences for Public
	Protection (IPP), 35-36
Gatekeepers, 18	Individuals, control of, 1
Gender	Ineffective knowledge sharing, 144
bias, 166	Inside Time (newspaper), 5, 138–139
Gender hostility, 179	Integrated Research Application
gendered constraints, 167–171	System (IRAS), 25–27
relations, 7–8	Intellectual and professional challenge,
Goal achievement, 57	96–99
Good order and discipline (GOAD),	International Personality Disorder
114–115	Examination (IPDE), 48
Governmentality, 20	Interpersonal power, 186
11 ' 77	Interventions, 71–72, 79–80, 124–125
Happiness, 77	Intimidating/intimidation, 150–154,
Healthy Identity Intervention (HII), 50	158, 173
Healthy Sex Programme (HSP), 50 Hegemonic masculinities, 166,	Invasive exploratory surgery, 125 Isolational dominance by uniformed
178–179, 186	staff, 159–163
Her Majesty's Prison and Probation	stair, 139–103
Service (HMPPS), 5, 9–10,	Juvenile Risk Assessment Scale
26, 30, 36	(J-RAS), 48
Equality Policy Statement, 186	(J-ICAS), 40
Historical, Clinical and Risk	Kaizen, 50
Management-20 (HCR-20),	Keepers of Gate, 25–28
48–49	Key Performance Targets (KPTs),
HMP Dovegate, 51–52	107
HMP Gartree, 51–52	Knowledge, 15–21
,

Labour product, 92–96	Negative peer relationships, 109–111
Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment	Neo-liberal political economy, 1
of Prisoners Act (LASPO),	Neutralisation, 135–141, 175
35–36	New Me Strengths, 50
Legitimate power, 17–18	New Public Management (NPM),
Level of Service Inventory-Revised	31, 33
(LSI-R), 48	Normalisation, 14–16
Level of Service/Case Management
Inventory (LS/CMI), 48	Occupational
Lived experience, 3	dissatisfaction, 102
Living as New Me, 50	factors, 104–109
	morality, 7–8
Maintaining accuracy, 133	motivators, 57
Managerial 'interventions', 12–13	role, 102–104
Managerialism, 33	satisfaction, 91–92
Mapping exercise, 59	Occupational experiences of forensic Masculinities, 7–8, 165	psychologists. See also hegemonic masculinities, 166,	Forensic psychologists,
178–179, 186	9, 92
Medical intervention, 124	emotional labour, 119-122
Medical model, 125	intellectual and professional
of forensic psychology, 79–80	challenge, 96–99
Medicalisation	labour product, 92–96
of deviance, 126	negative peer relationships,
processes, 12	109–111
and psychology, 124–126	occupational dissatisfaction, 102
of society, 12–15	occupational factors, 104–109
Mental discipline, 17–18	occupational role, 102–104
Minimisation, 175	occupational satisfaction, 91–92
Ministry of Justice, 4, 5–7, 30, 38, 52	ontological ambiguity, 102-104
Modern risk society, 34	prosociality and support, 99-102
Moral	relational frustrations, 117–119
abeyance, 23	social frustrations, 117–119
blindness, 40–41	spillage problem, 119–122
Morality, 1, 113	team dynamics, 109–111
Multi Agency Public Protection	training and career advancement,
Arrangements (MAPPA),	111–116
147	Offender, 51–52, 82–83, 124
	behaviour, 125
National Offender Management	management, 143–150
Service (NOMS), 30, 38, 147	Offender Assessment System (OASys)
National Research Committee (NRC),	36, 47–48, 147
25–27	Offender Group Re-Conviction Scale
Negative banter, 157	(OGRS), 48

Offender Management model (OM model), 147, 148	Prison, 1, 15–25, 29–30, 166 officers, 2
Offender Management Units (OMUs), 145, 147–150, 182	staff cultures and experience of, 38–45
Offender Personality Disorder pathway, 5	Prison Service, 37–38, 47–50, 53, 70 Prisoners, 22
Offending behaviour, 140–141	Professional discourses, 15–16
Offending Behaviour Programmes	Professional expertise, 14
Unit (OBPU), 49–50	Progression PIPE, 52
Ontological Security, 57, 111, 148	Propositioning, 176–179 Propositioning, 176–179
Ontological Security, 57, 111, 148,	Prosociality and support, 99–102
187–188	Provision PIPE, 52
Ontology, 13, 64	Psychological services, 150
OPDP, 52	development, 66
Organisations, 165	Psychologically informed
'Othering' of people in prison, 72	interventions, 34
	Psychologically Informed Planned
Palliating, 77–78	Environments (PIPEs), 5,
Panopticism, 15, 20–21	51–53
Paradox. See also Adjuncts of penal	Psychologists, 154, 184–186, 188–189
power, 183, 187	as 'expert', 126–130
Parole Board, 137–138	working in prisons, 165
Pathologized 'offender' labels, 22	Psychology, 21–25, 135–141
Penal. See also Adjuncts of penal	medicalisation and, 124-126
power; Subalterns of penal	offender management vs., 143–150
power	of power, 130–134
monoliths, 1	Psychology of Criminal Conduct, 34
power, 6	Psychopathy Checklist Revised
shift, 20	(PCL-R), 48–49
Penality, 31	Public protection, 69–71
People-centricism, 61
Physical discipline, 17–18	Quantitative method, 56
Physiological, motivators, 57	Quasi-psychological mumbo-jumbo,
Positivism, 13, 83	138–139
Positivist criminology, 13–14	Quintic power, 187
Power, 7–8, 15–25, 123, 135–141, 184,
187	Rehabilitatedness, 22–23
dynamics, 187	Rehabilitation, 23, 29, 31–32, 34,
psychology and bureaucratic forms	51–52, 71, 93–94
of, 130–134	Rehabilitative relationship, 129
Pragmatism, 74–75	Relational frustrations, 117–119
Precision, 133	Repressive welfarism, 66–67
Preparation PIPE, 52	Resentment, 25–26
Primary Care Trust, 31–32	Resolve, 50

Responsibilisation, 33, 79 Responsibility, 97–98	Strain, 117 Stress, 117
Retributive Idealist, 59, 85, 121,	Structured Assessment of Risk & Need
148–149	(SARN), 48–49
Retributivists, 8–9, 59, 70, 81, 132,	Subalterns of penal power. See also
187–189	Adjuncts of penal power
Risk, 29, 31–32	banter, 154–157
assessments, 45–46	impositional dominance by assuaging, 34, 124	uniformed staff, 157–159
management, 45–46	isolational dominance by uniformed technologies, 32–33	staff, 159–163
Risk Matrix 2000 (rm2000), 48	territoriality, 143–150
Risk of Serious Recidivism (RSR-tool),	uniformed body, 150-154
48	Subject, 82–83
Risk/needs model, 41-42, 135	Supervisor, 45, 99–101, 116
'Risk/needs responsivity' approach, 34	Suspicion, 151–152
Riskiness, 22–23, 71	Symbolic attainment, 191
	Symbolic capital, 7–8, 20–21
Scriptural economy, 33	Systems of knowledge, 16
Securitised knowledge, 16
Security, 145–146	Team dynamics, 98, 100–101, 109–111
Self-perpetuating logics, 184	Territorialism, 185–186
Senior Management Team (SMT), 136	Territoriality, 143–150
Severe and Dangerous Personality	Therapeutic communities, 51–53
Disorder (SDPD), 49	Therapeutons, 51–52
Sex discrimination, 166 Sex Offender Treatment Programmes	Thinking Skills Programme (TSP), 50 Totality, 165–166
(SOTP), 51, 119, 158, 170	'Traditional and sexist' prison, 173
Sexism, 179	Training and career advancement,
in workplace, 171–176	111–116
Sexual assertiveness, 178–179	Treatment
Sexual Violence Risk-20 (SVR-20), 48	industry, 6, 29–30, 46–51, 49–50
Sexualised	programmes, 71–72
gossiping, 20, 176–179	2003 Act. See 2003 Criminal Justice
propositioning, 176–179	Act
Social Darwinism, 11–12	2003 Criminal Justice Act, 36, 47–48
Social frustrations, 117–119	Typology, 55–56, 190
Social needs, 57
Sociality, 38–39, 187	Uniformed body, 150–154
Societal shift, 20	Uniformed staff
Society, 69–70	impositional dominance by,
Soft power, 19–20	157–159
Spillage problem, 119–122	isolational dominance by, 159–163
Staff cultures of prison, 38–45, 162	'Us and them' mentality, 152–153

'Usual' subaltern, 17 pris Utilitarianism, 77 pris Utilitarians, 8–9, 59, 59, 77–81, psy 131–132, 184–185, 187–188 Well-b Wild i Values, 97–98 Wome

Violence Risk Scale (VRS), 48–49 Violent Extremist Risk Assessment v2 (VERA-2), 48 Vulnerability, 6, 128, 160–161

Wales forensic psychology in prison, 30–31 prison in, 1 prison system of, 21–22 psychological services within prisons, 2, 8

Well-being, 127–128
Wild inaccuracies, 131–132
Women's Risk/Needs Assessment
(WRNA), 48
Women's work, 170
Workload, 104–109
Workplace sexism in, 171–176
violence, 173–174